“Nothing Changes if Nothing Changes”: Burrell Statement on “Status Quo” Endorsement in Mobile Mayoral Race

Burrell: “Judge Cheriogotis and Mayor Stimpson represent the same status quo that’s made our neighborhoods less safe, made it harder to find housing that’s affordable, and made it harder to attract new development and investments to our city”

Burrell: “Mobilians I talk to...are ready to turn the page on all of that and move forward with a new vision for our city, one that’s focused on all of us”

(Mobile, AL) – Today, native Mobilian and former City Councilman Jermaine A. Burrell issued the following statement after media reports that current Mobile Mayor Sandy Stimpson made an endorsement in the Mobile mayor’s race.

“Nothing changes if nothing changes. Judge Cheriogotis and Mayor Stimpson represent the same status quo that’s made our neighborhoods less safe, made it harder to find housing that’s affordable, and made it harder to attract new development and investments to our city.”

Burrell continued: “Mobilians I talk to from Maysville to West Mobile are ready to turn the page on all of that and move forward with a new vision for our city, one that’s focused on all of us.”
